

Home for Good staff spoke to 25,000 people at events and church services

800+ interested in fostering and adoption attended information events

Home for Good book sold 1,324 copies bringing the grand total to 5,396

1.35 million listened to Krish Kandiah host an adoption-themed BBC Radio 4 Sunday Service

3,043 unaccompanied children arrived in the UK claiming asylum in 2015

10,706 registrations of interest to foster unaccompanied minors as a result of our campaign and

1,000 attended an information event to find out more

750 people asked David Cameron to welcome 3,000 unaccompanied refugee children to the UK

Eden.co.uk sold 27,060 Home for Good Christmas cards

Our Pathway to Adoption aimed to find 20 families for 30 children who wait the longest 30 families are currently in the assessment process

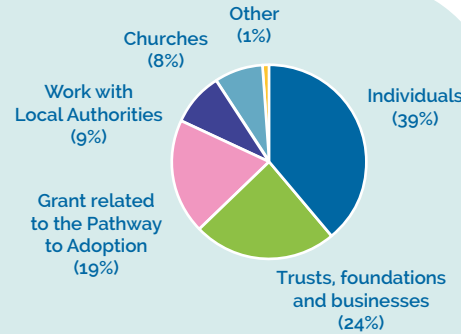

317 champions raising awareness in their churches

300+ churches took part in Adoption Sunday

8 Local Movements bringing churches together to find homes for children in their area

483 people came to our summit

Total Income £653,269*

37,468 people read children's profiles on our website
Our Mother's Day videos reached 51,844 Facebook users

We supported 1,309 people considering fostering or adoption through our enquiry line

We've connected with 209 churches in London and Oxfordshire through work with local authorities to find foster carers

Total Expenditure £487,089*

4,000 children waiting for adoption
Over 50% of children waiting are in sibling groups of 2 or more
9,000 foster carers needed
Each year 12% foster carers leave or retire

23 groups including 2 online groups supporting foster carers and adoptive parents

52 churches signed up to support families that foster and adopt

The average walking home for good fundraiser covered 93.4 miles

*As a new charity, it was our intention for our expenditure to be lower than our income to ensure that we could manage sustainable growth in 2016. These figures include the unrestricted and restricted funds and are taken from our provisional end of year accounts for the year ending 31 March 2016. Email finance@homeforgood.org.uk for a copy of our annual accounts.